Protest Ledged Against the Claiming of Toots Mook-Sheen, the Exercise Boy, Dead-Success Continues to Come to Frank O'Neill-Sir Lynnewood Lame.

BARATOOA, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Mohawk II. had snother chance to-day to show just what dassification he is entitled to as a three-resz-old, and the result was decidedly gratifying, despite the fact that he failed to even use a share of the ruys. The rests he was res a share of the purse. The route he was aked to travel was a mile and three-sixcenths, and for a mile and a furlong of the ray he held the others safe, the race seeming it his mercy. Then came a collapse that was searly due to lack of condition.

Summed up the showing warrants the prediction that this colt is going to make good to the form he showed as a two-year-old. He has been beaten twice by colts that he will lose later on, and the correctness of this prediction will come before the meeting much further advanced. On Saturday he will be a starter in the Great Republic Stakes to which his impost will be 116 pounds. In it he will meet the best of the handicap division here, and that means the pick of the entire country, for the prize is a rich one and none of those that was entered and anywhere near fit to run, will miss the chance to bid for the

Those who have been watching the doings that lead up to the race are pretty sweet on the chances of Tangle, still the showing Mohawk II. to-day forces the admission hat he will be a factor in the struggle. Should the last named win, the victory would be a popular one for the reason that Gen. Sanford has an immense following in this part of the State, and in addition to this the manner in which this stable has always been run has the stable has won the well wishes of all the sincere friends of racing.

Mr. Hitchcock has given Tangle a thorough preparation for this race through his trainer, John Madden, and there is no question that the thing that would please him best if his filly cannot win would be to see the Sanford colors first at the finish. Aleck Shields has brought Go Between here forthis race, and as his term of suspension has expired Go-Between will be sent to the post. He is beyond all question a good horse, but in Tangle and Mohawk II. he will meet a pair with a lot of class and to beat them he will have to show the very best that he has shown in his career. A protest was lodged with the stewards of the meeting to-day against the claiming yesterday of Toots Mook after she had been beaten in the first race. The protest is that she was claimed by J. A. Cooper, who is connected with the stable of A. L. Austin as an agent, and that the horse representing

Austin's interest was sent to the post by James Johnson—that is, he was given permission to see to the horse in the paddock. The claim was of course given due con-mideration, but there was little chance of a lecision that will force Austin to return the while schooling one of J. W. Colt's jumpers yesterday, died this afternoon in a local hospital. The body will be shipped to the lad's home near Hartford. Shoen was about 18 years old and learned to ride under the instructorship of M. J. Daly. Later he idrifted into the employ of Little Mike Daly, a nephew, riding on the flat for him

Secess continues to come the way Trank O'Neill as an owner. In the few weeks that have elapsed since he retired the saddle and announced that he would get together a stable and train them things have broken with a smoothness that have brought him rich profits.
To-day Penarris was down to carry his colors he thought he had a chance he hardly dared rate his horse as a good thing. Early in the day he was offered $5,000 for the colt, but he declined it, saying he was willing to take his chances with this race and the others

The result proved his refusal to sell a wise move, for the colt won in a most impressive style, and the winner's share of the stake was $8,500. This colt, like Salvidere, was sold at the dispersal sale of the horses of W. H. Brown, and cost O'Neill $4,100. Onteora's victory in the steeplechase, that were to come later on.

which was for gentlemen riders, must go on record as a lucky win. Maximilian, ridden by his owner, F. Ambrose Clark, who finished Menced wretchedly, blundering at practically all the jumps. At the water jump in front of the stand he landed with his hind feet in the water and all but fell. Later on at the Liverpool on the back stretch he had Mr. Clark up on his neck after a bad landing. Due credit must be given Mr. Page for his handling of Onteora. He rode a patient race and put up a finish that earned for him an ovation from the clubhouse. Mr. Soule who rode Patagonian is a New Yorker who has just taken up steeplechasign on the big track, and it was his first mountact any of the Sir Lynnewood, the favorite for the closing event, who was beaten out by Brookdale Nympth, pulled up all right, but later, after he had been cooled out, was so lame he hardly could walk. This was the result of a bad kick while at the post. Warning, Father Bill Daly's starter, was the offender. Revenge in the opening race pulled up in bad shape, having been cut down during the runing. It will be some time before she will be seen at the post again.

The private stables and paddocks of Charley day, but when offered no bid was forthcom-ing. The place is an extensive one and fitted up extravagantly and would make an ideal spot to summer horses, but it locks as if there would be considerable difficulty in getting any Ex-Mayor Charles Grainger of Louis-ville and one of the State Racing Commission of Kentucky was a buyer at the sale of yearto a nephew, Miller Henderson, who means to bring a stable East next spring. One of the lot, a filly, was knocked down to "Father" Eill Doly, but Grainger paid Daly a snug advance over the purchase price.

Martin Nathanson, secretary of the Cres-cent City Jockey Club and one of the stewards of the Western Jockey Club was at the track this afterna ... His trip here was for consultation with those interested in the New Orleans track. He is at work on the stakes that will be issued for the winter meeting and promises an array that will attract a better class of horses than ever.

Keene's Superman was a hot favorite at 6 to 5, but Superman was a hot favorite at 6 to 5, but getting off slowly he was never better than fourth. Miller cut out the pace with R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Aletheuc, 6 to 1, attended by August Belmont's Don Enrique, 8 to 1, but when Shaw cut Peharris loose at the head of the stretch the latter went to the front like a shot. He won by four lengths, with Aletheuc beating Don Enrique a neck for the place. Chaseaway, second in favor, had no early speed.

had no early speed.

H. P. Whitney's Brookdale Nymph ran a fine race in the handloap for all ages, at seven furlongs. She picked up 126 pounds, fol-lowed Comedienne's pace for more than half a mile and then went to the front, standing a hard drive long enough to win by a neck from J. E. Widener's Sir Lynnewood, 8 to 5 favorite, who might have won in a few more jumps. Comedienne, who went up to 5, was a poor third. The Whitney mare was generally neglected by the smart players, who let her go up to 4.

The Canadians put over a good thing in Peter Sterling, a slashing big colt by Lord Esterling, in the handicap at a mile and three sixteenths. He was well backed at 5 to 1. and when Koerner let him down he rushed home with a brilliant turn of speed, winner by three lengths in 1:59 1-5. Geranium, 2 to 1 favorite, shot her bolt after going hair a mile, while Mohawk II. 8 to 1, who then assumed command, quit at the last furlons. Inferno, 5 to 2, after being practically left at the post, ran a splendid race and finished second, half a length in front of Bill Daly's Sailor Boy, 30 to 1.

Beggar Maid, a Hamburg filly, backed from 3 down to 13 to 5 favorite, made all the pace in the opening event, for two-year-old fillies, and won easily by three lengths in 1:07.

H. B. Duryea's Mintberia, 15 to 1, ran into the pace, beating Eudora, 9 to 2, a head. Onteora, 18 to 10 favorite, ridden by his owner, Mr. Page, won the handicap steeplechase cleverly by a length from Maximilian, handled by F. Ambrose Clark.

Hammeraway, a 20 to 1 shot, made a strong finish in the fifth event, for three-year-olds, at a mile, winning by a length in 1:40 2-5, with Woolwich, 7 to 2, who led up to the last furlong, in the place, two lengths before Edith James, 6 to 1. Lancastrian, the favorite, was badly beaten. Four favorites lost. The summaries:

Mullen of Detroit Knocked Out in the First Inning-Philadelphias Draw With the Clevelands and Chicagos Shut Out the Bestons-Washingtons Beat St. Louis.

The New York Americans started off in fine etyle yesterday on their return fro ine tyle yesterday on their return from the West, winning from the Detroits with a tornado of hits in the first inning. The victory put them in second place, the Philedelphias the while being engaged in a tweive inning draw with the Clevelands. The White Sox, however, showed no diminution of speed, despite their change of venue to Boston, where they blanked the home team. The St. Louis team, which hit up a rapid pace at home, was uppet by the Washingtons. at home, was upset by the Washingtons. The results:

NEW YORK (A. L.), 10; DETROIT, 2. There is a lame leg or two on Griffith's team and a sore finger or two, but the team was sound enough yesterday to give the Detroits a drubbing. Williams, with a tender thumb, and Elberfeld, with a fat finger, re-

Detroits a drubbing. Williams, with a tender thumb, and Elberfeld, with a fat finger, retired from the game after it was clinched, but Chase, whose leg is still sore from his fall here three weeks ago, played the game through. There was a liberal attendance, an attest that Gothamites do not get too much baseball so long as their teams have a chance for the bunting.

The New Yorks made the game soft for the serving willie. Don't let my feet touch the ground, was the air to which they waitzed around the bases in the opening session, which session was all that Mullin lasted. Base hits rattled past Mullin and his fielders to the extent of seven, and seven runs were made. Eubanks also was hit hard, while Doc Newton held the Detroits safe, shutting them out for eight innings.

Newton caught two base runners napping at first and would have had a third if he had not thrown over Chase's head in the first inning. All but one of New York's fat harvest of hits were singles. Hoffman supplied the only long hit for the home team and he was an industrious and rangy toiler in the Outfield, seven flees falling into his rapacious mitt.

Willie Keeler began collecting bingles in and he was an intestions and he was an interest in the outfield, seven files falling into his rapacious mitt.

Willie Keeler began collecting bingles in the first inning. He clouted a hot one at Mullin and reached first. He and Elberfeld at once brought the hit and run plan into operation, Reeler going to third on Elberfeld's slap to right. Elberfeld advanced on Chase's out at first and scored behind Keeler on Laporte's liner to centre. Williams fouled to Lindsay; Conroy and Thomas walked. Thomas banged the ball over second, escorting two men home; Newton thrust a single to left and scored Hoffman; Keeler made his second hit of the inning, a grounder to short which he beat out, and Elberfeld likewise made his second safe swipe of the inning, scoring Thomas and Newton.

swipe of the inning, scoring Thomas and Newton.

Laporte travelled around in the second inning on Schaefer's fumble, Williams's demise at first on a passionate punch to Eubanks and Conroy's roller to centre. Newton singled in the third inning, but was caught napping. A little thing like one out did not worry the New Yorks. Keeler planted himself on first by means of a hit between short and third. Elberfeld followed with a freak hit. Apparently he tried to duck a high pitch. As he stooped his bat came up, met the ball and curved it to safe ground between Lindsay and Crawford. Again the hit and run scheme worked. Chase chopped through the right side of the infield when Schaefer went over to second to intercept Elberfeld stealing. Keeler scored on Chase's Presented as hit in the seventh inning of Chase.

Payne made a hit in the seventh inning which bounded past Keeler and yielded three bases. There was nobody out, but Payne hugged third so tenaciously that he never did reach the plate. He stayed there when Eubanks singled to short and took root so firmly that he did not come in when Eubanks was caught napping and was being run down. Yeager's high throw, O'Leary's triple and Jones's single equipped the Detroits with two runs in the ninth and shunted off a shutout. The score:

CREWS IN STRICT TRAINING. Cambridge Eight Rows 28 Seconds Faster Than Harvard Men.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

BOURNE END, England, Aug. 15.—The visitors here to-day to look at the rowing men were Howard De Walden and Blackstaffe, the latter the amateur champion sculler of Cambridge. Little was done by the crews of Cambridge. Little was done by the crews this morning. They have gone into strict training two days before the time they originally intended. In the Harvard boat inally intended. In the Harvard boat Faulkner pulled No. 5 in place of Richardson, who was indisposed. Blackstaffe said he thought Harvard had a fair crew, but was not equal to the task of beating Cambridge. The Cambridge crew rowed from Stone House to Bourne End in 7 minutes and 7 seconds, 28 seconds faster than Harvard's time for the same distance. Cambridge, however, had smoother water and less wind, while the Harvard boat was bothered near the finish by a punt getting in the way. Harvard had long practice this evening. The crew rowed to Marlow Point and baok. Lunt rowed for Glass, who had a slightly wrenched knee.

Jap Plays Good Tennis but Loses. Jap Plays Good Tennis but Loses.

Bar Harbor, Aug. 15.—The third round of the annual men's tournament for the championship of Maine at the Swimming Club today brought out the fastest tennis of the summer. A big surprise came when Fulton Cutting, Harvard '09, went down before Dekoven Bowen of Chicago. The best match of the day was between Amos R. E. Pinchot of New York and H. Kawasaki of Philadelphia. The Japanese player put up a brilliant flight, but was beaten. The result of the day's play leaves Pinchot, Edgar Scott of Philadelphia, Dekoven Bowen and J. T. Bowen, Jr., in the semi-finals.

Third Round—Dekoven Rowen, Chicago, beat Fulten Cutting, New York, 6-2, 6-4; Amos R. E. Pinchot, New York, beat h. Kawasaki, University of Pennsylvania, 6-4, 7 5; Edgar Scott, beat R. Hull, 6-0, 6-2; J. T. Bowen, Jr., Chicago, beat B. Hull, 6-1, 6-1.

AMONG THE AUTOMOBILISTS.

WHITMAN AND CARRIS MEET WITH AN ACCIDENT.

Latter Hurt When Machine. Hent on Rec ord, Plunges Into a Gully—Rochester Labor Day Race May Be Postponed —Time Too Short to Secure Entries.

L. L. Whitman and C. S. Carris were the victims of an accident on Tuesday night that spoiled their chances of breaking Bert Hol-comb's Chicago-New York automobile record comb's Chicago-New York automobile record and which will add about one day to the time of their transcontinental trip. The accident occurred when the pair were driving through a heavy fog frem Lake Erie, just outside of Conneaut, Ohio. They were travelling between thirty and forty miles an hour when the car ran off the road into a deep gully. The machine turned completely over, both of the single seats being broken. Carris, who was driving, was thrown twenty-five feet who was driving, was thrown twenty-five feet and his ankle was sprained and his knee fractured. Whitman escaped injury. The machine was badly banged up, the steering gear being bent, the front axle twisted and both mud guards torn off. The engine was uninjured and was still running when Whitman examined the car to see what damage had been done. He wired to a friend in this city last night that the car would be running before midnight.

Carl H. Page of the Automobile Club of America was married to Miss Hattle Burdell yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Regent. It was reported that the pair would make their honeymoon trip in a cance, but those who know Mr. Page's enthusiasm for automobiling predicted that at least part of the trip would be made in his White car.

It seems likely that the American Touring Car Derby, scheduled for Labor Day at Rochester, will be abandoned or postponed until next spring. W. J. Morgan of the New York Motor Club had been engaged to manage the affair, which was to have been run under the joint auspices of the Rochester Automobile Club and the New York State Automobile Club and the New York State Automobile Club and the New York State Automobile Association, and he returned recently from a trip to Detroit, Buffaio and Cleveland in the interests of the race. It was to be a 100 mile road race, over a twenty-five mile circuit near Rochester, for fully equipped touring cars of not over 60 horse-power, the competitors to be allowed to remove lamps, nuffiers and mud guards. On his trip Mr. Morgan found that the promoters could be sure of only a dozen entries, while at least twenty would be required to make the affair a success, the entries being limited to twenty-five. Many of the manufacturers told Mr Morgan that their 1907 cars would not be ready at that time and few of them esemed willing to compete with a 1906 model. As it would be necessary to spend from 15,500 to $20,000 to fix up the roads of the course, Mr. Morgan wrote to President H. S. Woodworth of the Rochester Automobile Club that he thought it would not be advisable to run the race as originally planned. He said Labor Day seemed to be too much of a between seasons date to secure sufficient entries to make the race a successful one and suggested that it be postponed until next Memorial Day, when all of the 1907 cars would be on the market and available for such a contest. Mr. Morgan wrote to Mr. Woodworth on Monday, but had received no reply last night. He said, however, he was sure the race would not be run on Labor Day as scheduled.

LAWN TENNIS. Wright, Larned, Dewhurst and Behr Reach Southampton Semi-Finals.

Southampton Semi-Finals.

Bouthampton, L. I. Aug. 15.—Nothing but hard hitting, slashing wielding of the lawn tennis racket was possible on the wind swept course of the Meadow Club to-day for the players who came through to the semi-final round. It was the lusty and vigorous men of the top class who survived the ordeal, and the quartet that took places in the semi-final round include the national champion, Beals C. Wright, William A. Larned, Edward B. Dewhurst, the inter-collegiate champion, and Karl H. Behr, Jr. Straight set victories were the order for Wright and Larned. The former proved unexpectedly resourceful against Richard Stevens, and Larned was classes ahead of Henry W. Slocum. The younger players. Stevens, and Larned was classes ahead of Henry W. Slocum. The younger players, Dewhurst and Behr, found more difficult problems. The intercollegists titleholder met Robert Leroy, Columbia's captain, and the latter forced the playing all the way through the match, although he lost in the end. Frederick C. Colston had studied Behr's game so carefully that the young Yale expert was not allowed to make use of his elever centre line drives. At the net also Behr was compelled to drop back because of the high lobs that Colston dared to send in air. By persistent volleying, however, Behr persistent volleying, however, Behr finally won.

Despite the clever work of Whright to-day he is still far below his usual champion-ship form. It is the opinion of Dr. Hugh Halsey that both the nervous and muscular systems of the crack player have suffered a severe shock from the effects of the blood poisoning and that he can not hope to recover severe snock from the elects of the decision of poisoning and that he can not hope to recover his former standard of play on the courts until next season.

The men's doubles were begun to-day, with sixteen pairs entered. William A. Larned and William J. Clothier have paired, as they did for the Eastern doubles title at Longwood, where they were defeated by Hackett and Alexander. In the absence of Holcombe Ward, the partner of Wright, in the National doubles championship, Wright took as his partner Aifred Stillman. They were somewhat ragged on their team work in the opening set against W. Johnson, of the Belmont Cricket Club and Frank B. Hague Montclair Athletic Club. Johnson and Hague won the first set. After that Wright and Stillman displayed greater smoothness and captured the second and third sets. The summary:

Exton was the choice in the 2:25 trotting race and was backed liberally at $50 to $30 on the field. In the first heat there was a duel between Exton and Billie H. which ended in a clean win for Exton. In the next heat Exton broke on the first turn and dropped back to fourth position, from which he worked his way with the steadiness of a machine and made a fight-ing finish with Billie H., who held first place. Exton beat him with a rush at the wire. Eady Gail Hamilton, daughter of Oakland Baron and driven by Geers, made good in the 2:10

RACING FOR 90-FOOTERS.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Aug. 15.—There will be fine racing in the 90 foot class of schooners next season. Two new schooners have been ordered and are to be built this winter to race against the Queen and the Elmina. One is for C. Oliver Iselin, who has managed so many Cup defenders, and the other is for his brother, William E. Iselin, who now owns the Vigilant. C. Oliver Iselin has gone to Herreshoff for his yacht, and it is safe to say that the new Herreshoff schooner will be faster than the Herreshoff schooner will be faster than the Queen. The other schooner has been designed by A. Cary Smith, who designed the Elmina, and Mr. Smith in his designs has taken every advantage of the new rule. Some say there will have to be a change this winter or the building of new yachts will be hurt very much.

The Cary Smith schooner is to be 7 feet longer on the water line than the Queen, making 97 feet. She will display about twenty tons more and will spread about 3,000 square feet more or between 12,000 and 13,000 square feet altogether. She will rate just the same as the Queen, and with her extra length and extra sail she should be a much faster boat.

Another new schooner is to be built for E.R. Coleman, owner of the Hildegarde. This boat is being designed by A.S. Chesebrough, and will be 120 feet long and rigged with three masts. Other boats for this class are being talked of.

FICKLE WIND FOR YACHTS.

Race Week Begins at Atlantic Y. C.-Jig Step a Winner. Race week at the Atlantic Yacht Club began yesterday afternoon. The weather conditions were peculiar. In one part of the bay there was a fresh wind while in another part, not far off, the yachts were in the dol-

The feature of the afternoon was the race for Class P boats, which was won by the Jig Step in a hair raising finish. Only three seconds separated the craft as they crossed the finish line. As the boats crossed the starting line the breeze suddenly died out and left the yachts as though they were at anchor. In the meanwhile the Vivian, Sakana and Kate were suffering from the same malady not far ahead and were unable to round the first mark.

After the Class Q boats crossed the Spider picked up a streak of wind and made off to the first mark. It proved to be an excellent streak of luck, for she finished far ahead of her rivals. There was no one who was able to judge the least thing about the racers, owing to the fickleness of the wind. The summaries:
